TELLING THE STORIES:

Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:16

What is the purpose?

The purpose of the conference is to bring together deacons, deaconesses and diaconal workers from throughout the Australian Anglican Church:

- to share their common calling, their experiences in diaconal ministry and training
- to provide mutual encouragement
- to expand the vision of the Diaconate and
- to provide motivation for the future.

Who can attend?

The conference is open to all deacons, deaconesses, theologically-trained workers holding a Bishop's licence and those currently in training for the diaconate.

What to bring?

- Warm clothing
- Personal effects
- Writing material
- Anything you may have written about your ministry: stories; poems; incidents; memories; and photos.
- Bible

Where is it?

See rough map on panel 6. There is a detailed map on the AussieDeacons website and instructions for getting to Canberra Girls Grammar are well documented there.

Conference Speakers

- The Reverend Don Jamieson, deacon in the community of Harden.
- The Rev'd Canon Scott Cowdell, Associate Professor, School of Theology, Charles Sturt University and Canon Theologian of the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn.
- The Venerable Anne Ranse, Archdeacon to the diaconate and people with disabilities, Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn.
- The Right Reverend John Stead, Assistant Bishop, Diocese of Bathurst. John will be our resident AADA bishop.
- Mrs Judith Dau, Editor of AADA newsletter.
- Professor Tom Frame, Director of St Mark's National Theological Centre, Barton ACT.
- Claire Lawler, Community leader of L'Arche Genesaret in Canberra.

Additional information

- Association fees are due for renewal at the AGM. Membership of the AADA is still $50 for 2 years. Fees for those on ATOs or on a pension is $25. Membership forms can be downloaded from the AADA website:
www.aussiedeacons.org.au
- The AADA president, Anne Ranse would like all diocesan representatives or diaconate convenors to submit an annual report three weeks prior to the conference. Please contact Anne if you are experiencing difficulties.
- Deacons from each diocese are invited to bring items for their trading table. Any proceeds from sales will remain with your diocese to assist with your funding.
- A Christian book stall will be operating throughout the conference.
